HEXAGRAM 63 - Chi Chi - After Completion

Above K'AN THE ABYSMAL, WATER
 Below Li THE CLINGING, FIRE

This hexagram is the evolution of T'ai, PEACE (11).

- The transition from confusion to order is completed, and
- everything is in its proper place even in particulars.

- The strong lines are in the strong places,
- the weak lines in the weak places.

- This is a very favorable outlook, yet

- it gives reason for thought.

For

- it is just when perfect equilibrium has been reached that
- any movement may cause order to revert to disorder.

The one strong line that has moved to the top,
thus effecting complete order in details,
• is followed by the other lines,
each moving according to its nature,
and thus suddenly
• there arises again the hexagram P'i, STANDSTILL (12).

Hence
the present hexagram
• indicates the conditions of a time of climax, which
• necessitate the utmost caution.

THE JUDGMENT

AFTER COMPLETION.
Success in small matters.
Perseverance furthers.
• At the beginning good fortune,
• At the end disorder.

The transition from the old to the new time is already accomplished.
In principle,
everything stands systematized,
and
it is only in regard to details that success is still to be achieved.
In respect to this, however,
we must be careful to maintain the right attitude.
• Everything proceeds as if of its own accord,
and
• this can all too easily tempt us to relax and let things take their course without troubling over details.
Such indifference is the root of all evil.
Symptoms of decay are bound to be the result.
Here
we have
• the rule indicating the usual course of history.
But
• this rule is not an inescapable law.
He who understands it is in position to avoid its effects by dint of

- unremitting perseverance
- and
- caution.

THE IMAGE

Water over fire: the image of the condition
In AFTER COMPLETION.

Thus

the superior man

- Takes thought of misfortune

And

- arms himself against it in advance.

When

water in a kettle hangs over fire,
the two elements

- stand in relation

and thus

- generate energy
(cf. the production of steam).

But

the resulting tension demands caution.

If

the water boils over,

- the fire is extinguished

and

- its energy is lost.

If

the heat is too great,

- the water evaporates into the air.

These elements here

- brought into relation

and thus

- generating energy
are by nature hostile to each other.

Only the most extreme caution can prevent damage.

In life too there are junctures when

- all forces are in balance

and

- work in harmony,

so that everything seems to be in the best of order.

In such times only the sage

- recognizes the moments that bode danger

and

- knows how to banish it by means of timely precautions.

THE LINES

Six in the second place means:

The woman loses the curtain of her carriage.

Do not run after it;

On the seventh day you will get it.

When

- a woman drove out in her carriage,
 - she had a curtain that hid her from the glances of the curious.
- It was regarded as a breach of propriety to drive on if this curtain was lost.

Applied to public life,
this means that a man who wants to achieve something is not receiving that confidence of the authorities which he needs, so to speak, for his personal protection.

Especially in times "after completion" it may happen that

- those who have come to power
- grow arrogant and conceited
and
 - no longer trouble themselves about fostering new talent.

This as a rule results in office seeking.

If

- a man's superiors withhold their trust from him,
- he will seek ways and means
 - of getting it
and
 - of drawing attention to himself.

We are warned against such an unworthy procedure:

"Do not seek it."

- Do not throw yourself away on the world,
but
- wait tranquilly
and
- develop your personal worth by your own efforts.

Times change.

When

- the six stages of the hexagram have passed,
 - the new era dawns.
- That which is a man's own cannot be permanently lost.
 - It comes to him of its own accord.
- He need only be able to wait.

MOVING HEXAGRAM

HEXAGRAM 05 – Hsu - Waiting (Nourishment)

Below CH'IEN THE CREATIVE, HEAVEN

All beings have need of nourishment from above.
But the gift of food comes in its own time, and for this one must wait.

This hexagram shows the clouds in the heavens, giving rain

- to refresh all that grows and
- to provide mankind with food and drink.

The rain will come in its own time.

- We cannot make it come;
- we have to wait for it.

The idea of waiting is further suggested by the attributes of the two trigrams –

- strength within,
 - danger in front. 2
- Strength in the face of danger does not plunge ahead but bides its time, whereas
 - weakness in the face of danger
 - grows agitated and
 - has not the patience to wait.

THE JUDGMENT

WAITING. If you are sincere,
You have light and success.
Perseverance brings good fortune.
It furthers one to cross the great water.

Waiting is not mere empty hoping.
It has the inner certainty of reaching the goal.
Such certainty alone gives that light which leads to success.
This leads to the perseverance that

- brings good fortune and
- bestows power to cross the great water.

One is faced with a danger that has to be overcome.
Weakness and impatience can do nothing.

Only a strong man can stand up to his fate,
for his inner security enables him to endure to the end.
This strength shows itself in uncompromising truthfulness (with himself).
It is only when we have the courage to face things exactly as they are,
without any sort of self-deception or illusion,
that a light will develop out of events,
by which the path to success may be recognized.
This recognition must be followed by resolute and persevering action.
For only the man who goes to meet his fate resolutely is equipped to deal with it adequately.
Then he will be able to cross the great water –
that is to say,
he will be capable

- of making the necessary decision and
- of surmounting the danger.

THE IMAGE

Clouds rise up to heaven: The image of WAITING.

Thus the superior man

- eats and
- drinks,
- Is joyous and
- of good cheer.

When clouds rise in the sky, it is a sign that it will rain.

There is nothing to do but to wait until the rain falls.

It is the same in life when destiny is at work.

- We should not worry and seek to shape the future by interfering in things before the time is ripe.
- We should quietly fortify the body with food and drink and the mind with gladness and good cheer.

Fate comes when it will, and thus we are ready.
