HEXAGRAM 55 – Feng - Abundance (Fullness)

Above CHEN THE AROUSING, THUNDER
Below LI THE CLINGING, FLAME

- Chen is movement;
- Li is flame, whose attribute is clarity.
- Clarity within,
- movement without –
this produces greatness and abundance.

The hexagram pictures a period of advanced civilization.

However,

the fact that development has reached a peak suggests that this extraordinary condition of abundance cannot be maintained permanently.

THE JUDGMENT

ABUNDANCE has success.

The king attains abundance.
Be not sad.
Be like the sun at midday.

It is not given to every mortal to bring about a time of

- outstanding greatness and
- abundance.

Only a born ruler of men is able to do it,
because his will is directed to what is great.

Such a time of abundance is usually brief.

Therefore

a sage might well feel sad in view of the decline that must follow.

But such sadness does not befit him.

Only a man who is inwardly free of sorrow and care
can lead in a time of abundance.

He must be like the sun at midday,
illuminating and gladdening everything under heaven.

THE IMAGE

Both thunder and lightning come: The image of ABUNDANCE.

Thus

the superior man

- decides lawsuits And
- carries out punishments.

This hexagram has a certain connection with Shih Ho, BITING THROUGH (21),
in which thunder and lightning similarly appear together,
but in the reverse order.

- In BITING THROUGH, laws are laid down;
- here they are applied and enforced.

- Clarity [Li] within makes it possible to investigate the facts exactly, and
- shock [Chen] without ensures a strict and precise carrying out of punishments.

THE LINES

Nine in the third place means:

The underbrush is of such abundance

That the small stars can be seen at noon.

He breaks his right arm.

No blame.

The image is that of a progressive covering over of the sun.

Here

the eclipse reaches totality;

therefore

even the small stars can be seen at noon.

In the sphere of social relationships,
this means that the prince is now so eclipsed that even the most insignificant persons can push themselves into the foreground.
This makes it impossible for an able man
though he might be the right hand of the ruler,
to undertake anything.
It is as though his arm was broken,
but he is not to blame for being thus hindered in action.

MOVING HEXAGRAM

HEXAGRAM 51 – Chen - The Arousing (Shock, Thunder)

Below CHEN THE AROUSING, THUNDER

The hexagram Chen represents the eldest son, who seizes rule with

- energy and
- power.

A yang line

- develops below two yin lines and
- presses upward forcibly.

This movement is so violent that it arouses terror.

It is symbolized by thunder, which

- bursts forth from the earth and by its shock
- causes fear and trembling.

THE JUDGMENT

- Shock brings success.
- Shock comes-oh, oh!
Laughing words-ha, ha!
- The shock terrifies for a hundred miles, And
- he does not let fall the sacrificial spoon and chalice.

The shock that comes from the manifestation of God
within the depths of the earth
makes man afraid,
but this fear of God is good,
for joy and merriment can follow upon it.

When

- a man has learned within his heart what fear and trembling mean,
- he is safeguarded against any terror produced by outside influences.

Let the thunder roll and spread terror a hundred miles around:

- he remains so composed and reverent in spirit

that

- the sacrificial rite is not interrupted.

This is the spirit that must animate leaders and rulers of men –

- a profound inner seriousness from which
- all outer terrors glance off harmlessly.

THE IMAGE

Thunder repeated: the image of SHOCK.

Thus in fear and trembling

The superior man

- sets his life in order And
- examines himself.

The shock of continuing thunder brings

- fear and
- trembling.

The superior man

- is always filled with reverence at the manifestation of God;

he

- sets his life in order and
- searches his heart,

lest it harbor any secret opposition to the will of God.

Thus

- reverence is the foundation of true culture.
