HEXAGRAM 42 – I - Increase

Above SUN THE GENTLE, WIND
Below CHEN THE AROUSING, THUNDER

The idea of increase is expressed in the fact that the strong lowest line of the upper trigram

- has sunk down

and

- taken its place under the lower trigram.

This conception also expresses the fundamental idea on which the Book of Changes is based.

To rule truly is to serve.

A sacrifice of the higher element that produces an increase of the lower is called an out-and-out increase:

it

indicates the spirit that alone has power to help the world.

THE JUDGMENT

INCREASE.

- It furthers one To undertake something.
- It furthers one to cross the great water.

Sacrifice on the part of those above for the increase of those below

- fills the people with a sense of joy and gratitude that

- is extremely valuable for the flowering of the commonwealth.

When people are thus devoted to their leaders,

- undertakings are possible,

and

- even difficult and dangerous enterprises will succeed.

Therefore in such times of progress and successful development

it is necessary to

- work

and

- make the best use of the time.

This time resembles that of the marriage of heaven and earth,

when the earth

- partakes of the creative power of heaven,
- forming and bringing forth living beings.

The time of INCREASE does not endure, therefore

it must be utilized while it lasts.

THE IMAGE

Wind and thunder: the image Of INCREASE.

Thus the superior man:

If

- he sees good,
  - he imitates it;

If

- he has faults,
  - he rids himself of them.

While observing how thunder and wind increase and strengthen each other, a man can note the way to

- self-increase

and

- self-improvement.

When he discovers good in others,

he should

- imitate it and thus

- make everything on earth his own.

If

- he perceives something bad in himself,
  - let him rid himself of it.

In this way

- he becomes free of evil.

This ethical change represents the most important increase of personality.

THE LINES

Nine at the beginning means:

It furthers one to accomplish great deeds.

Supreme good fortune.

No blame.

If

great help comes to a man from on high, this increased strength must be used to achieve something great for which he might otherwise never have found energy, or readiness to take by selflessness, responsibility.

- Great good fortune is produced
and
in bringing about great good fortune,
• he remains free of reproach.

Six in the second place means:

Someone does indeed increase him

Ten pairs of tortoises cannot oppose it.

Constant perseverance brings good fortune.

The king presents him before God.

Good fortune.

A man brings about real increase by producing in himself the conditions for it.

That is,

through receptivity to and love of the good.

Thus

the thing for which he strives comes of itself, with the inevitability of natural law.

Where

increase is thus in harmony with the highest laws of the universe, it can not be prevented by any constellation of accidents.

But everything depends on his not letting unexpected good fortune make him heedless;

he must make it his own through

- inner strength

and

- steadfastness.

Then

he

- acquires meaning before God and man,
- and
- can accomplish something for the good of the world.

Six in the third place means:

One is enriched through unfortunate events.

No blame, if you

- are sincere

And

- walk in the middle,

And

- report with a seal to the prince.

A time of blessing and enrichment has such powerful effects that even events ordinarily unfortunate must turn out to the advantage of those affected by them.

These persons become

- free of error, and by acting in harmony with truth
- they
  - gain such inner authority that
  - they exert influence as if sanctioned by letter and seal

MOVING HEXAGRAM

HEXAGRAM 57 – Sun - The Gentle (The Penetrating, Wind)

Above SUN THE GENTLE, WIND, WOOD

Below SUN THE GENTLE, WIND, WOOD

Sun is one of the eight doubled trigrams.

It

- is the eldest daughter

and

- symbolizes wind or wood;

it has for its attribute gentleness,

which nonetheless penetrates

- like the wind

or

- like growing wood with its roots.

The dark principle, in itself rigid and immovable, is dissolved by the penetrating light principle, to which it subordinates itself in gentleness.

1. In nature,

it is the wind that

- disperses the gathered clouds, leaving the sky clear and serene.

2. In human life

it is penetrating clarity of judgment that

- thwarts all dark hidden motives.

3. In the life of the community it is the powerful influence of a great personality that

- uncovers and breaks up those intrigues which shun the light of day.

THE JUDGMENT

THE GENTLE.

Success through what is small.

- It furthers one to have somewhere to go.
- It furthers one to see the great man.

Penetration produces

- gradual

and

- inconspicuous

effects.

It should be effected

- not by an act of violation
- but by influence that never lapses.

- Results of this kind are less striking to the eye than

- those won by surprise attack,

but

- they
  - are more enduring
  - and
  - more complete.

If

- one would produce such effects
- one must have a dearly defined goal, for only when

- the penetrating influence works always in the same direction
- can the object be attained.

Small strength can achieve its purpose only by

- subordinating itself to an eminent man
- who is capable of creating order.

THE IMAGE

Winds following one upon the other: The image of THE GENTLY PENETRATING. Thus the superior man

- Spreads his commands abroad

And

- carries out his undertakings.

- The penetrating quality of the wind depends upon its ceaselessness.

- This is what makes it so powerful;
- time is its instrument.

In the same way

- the ruler's thought should penetrate the soul of the people.
  - This too requires a lasting influence brought about by
    - enlightenment
    - and
    - command.

Only when

- the command has been assimilated by the people
- is action in accordance with it possible.

Action without preparation of the ground only

- frightens

and

- repels.
