HEXAGRAM 10 – Lu - Treading (Conduct)

Below TUI THE JOYOUS, LAKE

1. The name of the hexagram means on the one hand the right way of conducting oneself.
 - Heaven, the father, is above, and
 - the lake, the youngest daughter, is below.

This shows the difference between high and low, upon which composure, correct social conduct, depends.
2. On the other hand, the word for the name of the hexagram, TREADING, 1 means literally treading upon something.
The small and cheerful [Tui] treads upon the large and strong [Ch'ien].
The direction of movement of the two primary trigrams is upward.
The fact that the strong treads on the weak is not mentioned in the Book of Changes, because it is taken for granted.
For the weak to take a stand against the strong is not dangerous here, because it happens in good humor [Tui] and without presumption, so that the strong man is not irritated but takes it all in good part.

THE JUDGMENT

TREADING.

Treading upon the tail of the tiger.

It does not bite the man.

Success.

The situation is really difficult.

That which is strongest and that which is weakest are close together.

- The weak follows behind the strong and worries it.
- The strong, however, acquiesces and does not hurt the weak, because the contact is in good humor and harmless.

In terms of a human situation, one is handling wild, intractable people. In such a case one's purpose will be achieved if one behaves with decorum. Pleasant manners succeed even with irritable people.

Thus the superior man

- discriminates between high and low, And thereby
- fortifies the thinking of the people.

Heaven and the lake show a difference of elevation that inheres in the natures of the two, hence no envy arises.

Among mankind also there are necessarily differences of elevation;

it is impossible to bring about universal equality.

But it is important that differences in social rank should not be arbitrary and unjust, for if this occurs, envy and class struggle are the inevitable consequences.

- If, on the other hand, external differences in rank correspond with differences in inner worth, and
- if inner worth forms the criterion of external rank, people acquiesce and order reigns in society.

THE LINES

0 Six in the third place means:

- A one-eyed man is able to see,
- A lame man is able to tread.

He treads on the tail of the tiger.

The tiger bites the man.

Misfortune.

Thus does a warrior act on behalf of his great prince.

- A one-eyed man can indeed see, but not enough for clear vision.
- A lame man can indeed tread, but not enough to make progress.

If

in spite of such defects

a man considers himself strong and consequently exposes himself to danger, he is inviting disaster, for he is undertaking something beyond his strength .

This reckless way of plunging ahead, regardless of the adequacy of one's powers, can be justified only in the case of a warrior battling for his prince.

Nine at the top means:

- Look to your conduct and
- weigh the favorable signs.

When everything is fulfilled, supreme good fortune comes.

The work is ended.

If

- we want to know whether good fortune will follow,
- we must look back upon
 - our conduct and
 - its consequences.

If

- the effects are good,
- then good fortune is certain.

No one knows himself.

It is only

- by the consequences of his actions,
 - by the fruit of his labors,
- that a man can judge what he is to expect.

HEXAGRAM 43 – Kuai - Break-through (Resoluteness)

Above Tui
Below CH'IEN

THE JOYOUS, LAKE
THE CREATIVE, HEAVEN

This hexagram signifies on the one hand

- a break-through after a long accumulation of tension, as a swollen river breaks through its dikes, or in the manner of a cloudburst.

On the other hand, applied to human conditions,

- it refers to the time when inferior people gradually begin to disappear.
Their influence is on the wane;
as a result of resolute action,

- a change in conditions occurs,
- a break-through.

The hexagram is linked with the third month [April-May].

THE JUDGMENT

BREAK-THROUGH.

- One must resolutely make the matter known At the court of the king.
- It must be announced truthfully.

Danger.

It is necessary to notify one's own city.

- It does not further to resort to arms.
- It furthers one to undertake something.

- Even if only one inferior man is occupying a ruling position in a city,
 - he is able to oppress superior men.
- Even a single passion still lurking in the heart
 - has power to obscure reason.
- Passion and reason cannot exist side by side - therefore
 - fight without quarter is necessary if the good is to prevail.

In a resolute struggle of the good against evil, there are, however, definite rules that must not be disregarded, if it is to succeed.

1. First,

resolution must be based on a union of

- strength and
- friendliness.

2. Second,

a compromise with evil is not possible;

- evil must under all circumstances be openly discredited.
- Nor must our own passions and shortcomings be glossed over.

3. Third,

the struggle must not be carried on directly by force.

- If evil is branded, it thinks of weapons, and
- if
- we do it the favor of fighting against it blow for blow,
- we lose in the end
- because thus
- we ourselves get entangled in hatred and passion.

Therefore

4. it is important

- to begin at home,
- to be on guard in our own persons against the faults we have branded.

In this way,

- finding no opponent,
- the sharp edges of the weapons of evil become dulled.

For the same reasons

5. we should not combat our own faults directly.

- As long as we wrestle with them,
- they continue victorious.

Finally,

6. the best way to fight evil is to make energetic progress in the good.

THE IMAGE

The lake has risen up to heaven: The image of BREAK-THROUGH.

Thus the superior man

- Dispenses riches downward And
- refrains from resting on his virtue.

- When the water of a lake has risen up to heaven,
 - there is reason to fear a cloudburst.
- Taking this as a warning,
 - the superior man forestalls a violent collapse.

- If a man were to pile up riches for himself alone, without considering others,
- he would certainly experience a collapse.

For all gathering is followed by dispersion.

Therefore

the superior man begins to distribute while he is accumulating.

In the same way,

in developing his character

he takes care

- not to become hardened in obstinacy
 - but to remain receptive to impressions
- by help of strict and continuous self-examination.
