HEXAGRAM 58 – Tui - The Joyous, Lake

Above TUI THE JOYOUS, LAKE

Below TUI THE JOYOUS, LAKE

- This hexagram,
 - like Sun,
- is one of the eight formed by doubling of a trigram.
The trigram Tui denotes the youngest daughter;
it is symbolized by the smiling lake, and its attribute is joyousness.
Contrary to appearances,
 - it is not the yielding quality of the top line that accounts for joy here.
 - The attribute of the yielding or dark principle is
 - not joy
 - but melancholy.

However,

JOY is indicated by the fact that there are two strong lines within, expressing themselves through the medium of gentleness.

True joy, therefore,

- rests on firmness and strength within,
- manifesting itself outwardly as yielding and gentle.

THE JUDGMENT

THE JOYOUS.

Success.

Perseverance is favorable.

The joyous mood

- is infectious
- and therefore
- brings success.

But

- joy must be based on steadfastness
- if
- it is not to degenerate into uncontrolled mirth.

- Truth and strength must dwell in the heart, while

- gentleness reveals itself in social intercourse.
- In this way

one

- assumes the right attitude toward God and man and
- achieves something.

Under certain conditions,

intimidation without gentleness may achieve something

- momentarily,
- but not for all time.

When, on the other hand,

the hearts of men are won by friendliness,

they are

- led to take all hardships upon themselves willingly,
- and if need be
- will not shun death itself,
- so great is the power of joy over men.

THE IMAGE

Lakes resting one on the other: The image of THE JOYOUS.

Thus the superior man joins with his friends

For

- discussion and

- practice.

- A lake evaporates upward and thus

- gradually dries up;

but when

two lakes are joined

- they do not dry up so readily,
- for one replenishes the other.

It is the same in the field of knowledge.

Knowledge should be a refreshing and vitalizing force.

It becomes so only through stimulating intercourse

- with congenial friends
- with whom one
 - holds discussion and
 - practices application of the truths of life.

In this way

learning

- becomes many-sided and
- takes on a cheerful lightness, whereas

- there is always something ponderous and one-sided about
- the learning of the self-taught.

THE LINES

Six in the third place means:

Coming joyousness.

Misfortune.

True joy must spring from within.

- But if

one

- is empty within and
 - wholly given over to the world,
- idle pleasures come streaming in from without.
This is what many people welcome as diversion.

Those who

- lack inner stability and therefore
 - need amusement,
- will always find opportunity of indulgence.

They attract external pleasures

by the emptiness of their natures.

Thus

they lose themselves more and more,
which of course has bad results.

HEXAGRAM 43 – Kuai - Break-through (Resoluteness)

Below CH'IEN THE CREATIVE, HEAVEN

This hexagram signifies on the one hand

- a break-through after a long accumulation of tension,
as a swollen river breaks through its dikes, or in the manner of a cloudburst.

On the other hand, applied to human conditions,

- it refers to the time when inferior people gradually begin to disappear.

Their influence is on the wane;

as a result of resolute action,

- a change in conditions occurs,
- a break-through.

The hexagram is linked with the third month [April-May].

THE JUDGMENT

BREAK-THROUGH.

- One must resolutely make the matter known At the court of the king.
- It must be announced truthfully.

Danger.

It is necessary to notify one's own city.

- It does not further to resort to arms.
- It furthers one to undertake something.

- Even if only one inferior man is occupying a ruling position in a city,
 - he is able to oppress superior men.
- Even a single passion still lurking in the heart
 - has power to obscure reason.
- Passion and reason cannot exist side by side - therefore
 - fight without quarter is necessary if the good is to prevail.

In a resolute struggle of the good against evil, there are, however, definite rules that must not be disregarded, if it is to succeed.

1. First,
resolution must be based on a union of

- strength and
- friendliness.

2. Second,

a compromise with evil is not possible;

- evil must under all circumstances be openly discredited.
- Nor must our own passions and shortcomings be glossed over.

3. Third,

the struggle must not be carried on directly by force.

- If evil is branded, it thinks of weapons, and
- if
- we do it the favor of fighting against it blow for blow,
- we lose in the end
- because thus
- we ourselves get entangled in hatred and passion.

Therefore

4. it is important

- to begin at home,
- to be on guard in our own persons against the faults we have branded.

In this way,

- finding no opponent,
- the sharp edges of the weapons of evil become dulled.

For the same reasons

5. we should not combat our own faults directly.

- As long as we wrestle with them,
- they continue victorious.

Finally,

6. the best way to fight evil is to make energetic progress in the good.

THE IMAGE

The lake has risen up to heaven: The image of BREAK-THROUGH.

Thus the superior man

- Dispenses riches downward And
- refrains from resting on his virtue.

- When the water of a lake has risen up to heaven,
 - there is reason to fear a cloudburst.
- Taking this as a warning,
 - the superior man forestalls a violent collapse.

- If a man were to pile up riches for himself alone, without considering others,
- he would certainly experience a collapse.

For all gathering is followed by dispersion.

Therefore

the superior man begins to distribute while he is accumulating.

In the same way,

in developing his character

he takes care

- not to become hardened in obstinacy
- but to remain receptive to impressions
by help of strict and continuous self-examination.
