HEXAGRAM 26 - Ta Ch'u - The Taming Power of the Great

Below CH'IEN                THE CREATIVE, HEAVEN

The Creative is tamed by Ken, Keeping Still.
This produces great power,
a situation in contrast to that of the ninth hexagram, Hsiao Ch'u, THE TAMING POWER OF THE SMALL,
in which the Creative is tamed by the Gentle alone.

- There
- one weak line must tame five strong lines, but
- here
- four strong lines are restrained by two weak lines;
- in addition to a minister,
- there is a prince, and
- the restraining power

therefore is far stronger.

The hexagram has a threefold meaning, expressing different aspects of the concept Holding firm.

1. Heaven within the mountain gives the idea of holding firm in the sense of holding together;
2. the trigram Ken, which holds the trigram Ch'ien still, gives the idea of holding firm in the sense of holding back;
3. the third idea is that of holding firm in the sense of caring for and nourishing.
  - This last is suggested by the fact that a strong line at the top, which is the ruler of the hexagram, is honored and tended as a sage.
  - The third of these meanings also attaches specifically to this strong line at the top, which represents the sage.

THE JUDGMENT

THE TAMING POWER OF THE GREAT.

Perseverance furthers.

Not eating at home brings good fortune.

It furthers one to cross the great water.

To

- hold firmly to great creative powers and
  - store them up, as set forth in this hexagram,
- there is need of a strong, clearheaded man who is honored by the ruler.

- The trigram Ch'ien points to strong creative power;
- Ken indicates firmness and truth.

Both point

- to light and clarity and
- to the daily renewal of character.

Only through such daily self-renewal

can a man continue at the height of his powers.

- Force of habit helps to keep order in quiet times; but in periods when there is a great storing up of energy,
- everything depends on the power of the personality.

However, since the worthy are honored, as in the case of the strong personality entrusted with leadership by the ruler, it is an advantage

- not to eat at home but rather
- to earn one's bread by entering upon public office.

Such a man is in harmony with heaven;

therefore even great and difficult undertakings, such as crossing the great water, succeed.

THE IMAGE

Heaven within the mountain:

The image of THE TAMING POWER OF THE GREAT.

Thus the superior man acquaints himself with

- many sayings of antiquity And
- many deeds of the past,

In order to strengthen his character thereby.

Heaven within the mountain points to hidden treasures.

In the words and deeds of the past there lies hidden a treasure that men may use to strengthen and elevate their own characters.

The way to study the past is

- not to confine oneself to mere knowledge of history but, through application of this knowledge,
- to give actuality to the past.

THE LINES

Nine at the beginning means:

Danger is at hand.

It furthers one to desist.

A man wishes to make vigorous advance,
but circumstances present an obstacle.

He sees himself held back firmly.

If

- he should attempt to force an advance,
- it would lead him into misfortune.

Therefore it is better for him

- to compose himself and
- to wait until an outlet is offered for release of his stored up energies.

Hexagram 18 – Work on What has been Spoiled

Below SUN THE GENTLE, WIND

The Chinese character Ku represents a bowl in whose contents worms are breeding.

This means decay.

It has come about because

- the gentle indifference of the lower trigram has come together with
- the rigid inertia of the upper, and the result is stagnation.

Since this implies guilt,

the conditions embody a demand for removal of the cause.

Hence the meaning of the hexagram is

- not simply "what has been spoiled"
- but "work on what has been spoiled."

THE JUDGMENT

WORK ON WHAT HAS BEEN SPOILED

Has supreme success.

It furthers one to cross the great water.

Before the starting point, three days.

After the starting point, three days.

What has been spoiled through man's fault can be made good again through man's work.

- It is not immutable fate, as, in the time of STANDSTILL, that has caused the state of corruption,
- but rather the abuse of human freedom.

Work toward improving conditions promises well, because it accords with the possibilities of the time.

We

- must not recoil from work and danger – symbolized by crossing of the great water - but
- must take hold energetically.

Success depends, however, on proper deliberation.

This is expressed by the lines,

- "Before the starting point, three days.
- After the starting point, three days."

We must first know the causes of corruption before we can do away with them;

hence it is necessary to be cautious during the time before the start.

Then

we must see to it that the new way is safely entered upon, so that a relapse may be avoided;

therefore we must pay attention to the time after the start.

- Decisiveness and

- energy
- must take the place of the
- inertia and
  - indifference
- that have led to decay,
- in order that the ending may be followed by a new beginning.

THE IMAGE

The wind blows low on the mountain: The image Of DECAY.

Thus the superior man

- stirs up the people And
- strengthens their spirit.

- When the wind blows low on the mountain,
- it is thrown back and spoils the vegetation.

This contains a challenge to improvement.

It is the same with

- debasing attitudes and
- fashions;

they corrupt human society.

To do away with this corruption,
the superior man must regenerate society.

His methods likewise must be derived from the two trigrams, but in such a way that their effects unfold in orderly sequence.

The superior man

- must first remove stagnation by stirring up public opinion,
  - as the wind stirs everything, and
- must then strengthen and tranquilize the character of the people,
  - as the mountain gives tranquility and nourishment to all that grows in its vicinity.
