HEXAGRAM 24 – Fu - Return (The Turning Point)

Above K'UN THE RECEPTIVE, EARTH
Below CHEN THE AROUSING, THUNDER

The idea of a turning point arises from the fact that

- after the dark lines have pushed all of the light lines upward and out of the hexagram,
- another light line enters the hexagram from below.

The time of darkness is past.

The winter solstice brings the victory of light.

This hexagram is linked with the eleventh month, the month of the solstice (December-January).

THE JUDGMENT

RETURN. Success.

- Going out and coming in without error.
- Friends come without blame.
- To and fro goes the way.
- On the seventh day comes return.
- It furthers one to have somewhere to go.

After a time of decay comes the turning point.

The powerful light that has been banished returns.

There is movement, but it is not brought about by force.

The upper trigram K'un is characterized by devotion;

thus the movement is natural, arising spontaneously.

For this reason the transformation of the old becomes easy.

- The old is discarded and
- the new is introduced.

Both measures accord with the time;

therefore no harm results.

Societies of people sharing the same views are formed.

But since these groups

- come together in full public knowledge and
- are in harmony with the time,
- all selfish separatist tendencies are excluded, and
- no mistake is made.

The idea of RETURN is based on the course of nature.

- The movement is cyclic, and
- the course completes itself.

Therefore

it is not necessary to hasten anything artificially.

Everything comes of itself at the appointed time.

This is the meaning of heaven and earth.

All movements are accomplished in six stages, and the seventh brings return.

Thus

- the Winter solstice, with which the decline of the year begins,
 - comes in the seventh month after the summer solstice;
- so too
- sunrise
 - comes in the seventh double hour after sunset.

Therefore

seven is the number of the young light, and it arises when six, the number of the great darkness, is increased by one.

In this way

the state of rest gives place to movement.

THE IMAGE

Thunder within the earth: The image of THE TURNING POINT.

Thus

- the kings of antiquity closed the passes At the time of solstice.
- Merchants and strangers did not go about, And
- the ruler Did not travel through the provinces.

The winter solstice has always been celebrated in China as the resting time of the year – a custom that survives in the time of rest observed at the new year.

In winter the life energy, symbolized by thunder, the Arousing is still underground.

Movement is just at its beginning;

therefore

it must be strengthened by rest, so that it will not be dissipated by being used prematurely.

This principle, i.e., of allowing energy that is renewing itself to be reinforced by rest, applies to all similar situations.

- The return of health after illness,
 - the return of understanding after an estrangement:
- everything must be treated tenderly and with care at the beginning, so that the return may lead to a flowering.

THE LINES

Six in the third place means:

Repeated return.

Danger.

No blame.

There are people of a certain inner instability who feel a constant urge to reverse themselves.

There is danger in

- continually deserting the good because of uncontrolled desires, then
- turning back to it again because of a better resolution.

However,

since this does not lead to habituation in evil,

a general inclination to overcome the defect is not wholly excluded.

Six in the fifth place means:

Noblehearted return.

No remorse.

When the time for return has come,

a man

- should not take shelter in trivial excuses, but
- should look within and examine himself.

And if

- he has done something wrong
 - he should make a noblehearted resolve to confess his fault.
- No one will regret having taken this road.

HEXAGRAM 63 - Chi Chi - After Completion

Above K'AN THE ABYSMAL, WATER
Below Li THE CLINGING, FIRE

This hexagram is the evolution of T'ai, PEACE (11).

- The transition from confusion to order is completed, and
- everything is in its proper place even in particulars.

- The strong lines are in the strong places,
- the weak lines in the weak places.

- This is a very favorable outlook, yet

- it gives reason for thought.

For

- it is just when perfect equilibrium has been reached that
- any movement may cause order to revert to disorder.

The one strong line that has moved to the top,
thus

effecting complete order in details,

- is followed by the other lines,
each moving according to its nature,

and thus suddenly

- there arises again the hexagram P'i, STANDSTILL (12).

Hence

the present hexagram

- indicates the conditions of a time of climax, which
- necessitate the utmost caution.

THE JUDGMENT

AFTER COMPLETION.

Success in small matters.

Perseverance furthers.

- At the beginning good fortune,
- At the end disorder.

The transition from the old to the new time is already accomplished.

In principle,

everything stands systematized,

and it is only in regard to details that success is still to be achieved.

In respect to this, however,

we must be careful to maintain the right attitude.

- Everything proceeds as if of its own accord, and
- this can all too easily tempt us to relax and let things take their course without troubling over details.

Such indifference is the root of all evil.

Symptoms of decay are bound to be the result.

Here

we have

- the rule indicating the usual course of history.

But

- this rule is not an inescapable law.

He who understands it is in position to avoid its effects by dint of

- unremitting perseverance
- and
- caution.

THE IMAGE

Water over fire: the image of the condition

In AFTER COMPLETION.

Thus

the superior man

- Takes thought of misfortune
- And
- arms himself against it in advance.

When

water in a kettle hangs over fire, the two elements

- stand in relation

and thus

- generate energy
(cf. the production of steam).

But

the resulting tension demands caution.

If

the water boils over,

- the fire is extinguished

and

- its energy is lost.

If

the heat is too great,

- the water evaporates into the air.

These elements here

- brought into relation

and thus

- generating energy
are by nature hostile to each other.

Only the most extreme caution can prevent damage.

In life too there are junctures when

- all forces are in balance

and

- work in harmony,

so that everything seems to be in the best of order.

In such times only the sage

- recognizes the moments that bode danger

and

- knows how to banish it by means of timely precautions.
