HEXAGRAM 39 – Chien - Obstruction

Above K'AN THE ABYSMAL, WATER
Below KEN KEEPING STILL, MOUNTAIN

The hexagram pictures

- a dangerous abyss lying before us and
- a steep, inaccessible mountain rising behind us.

We are surrounded by obstacles;

at the same time, since the mountain has the attribute of keeping still,

there is implicit a hint as to how we can extricate ourselves.

The hexagram represents obstructions that appear in the course of time but that can and should be overcome.

Therefore

all the instruction given is directed to overcoming them.

THE JUDGMENT

OBSTRUCCION.

- The southwest furthers.

- The northeast does not further.
 - It furthers one to see the great man.
- Perseverance brings good fortune.

The southwest is the region of retreat,
the northeast that of advance.

Here

an individual is confronted by obstacles that cannot be overcome directly.

In such a situation

it is wise

- to pause in view of the danger and
- to retreat.

However,

this is merely a preparation for overcoming the obstructions.

One must

- join forces with friends of like mind and
- put himself under the leadership of a man equal to the situation:

then

one will succeed in removing the obstacles.

This requires the will to persevere

just when one apparently must do something that leads away from his goal.

This unswerving inner purpose brings good fortune in the end.

An obstruction that lasts only for a time is useful for self-development.

This is the value of adversity.

THE IMAGE

Water on the mountain:

The image of OBSTRUCTION.

Thus the superior man

- turns his attention to himself And
- molds his character.

Difficulties and obstructions throw a man back upon himself.

While

- the inferior man
 - seeks to put the blame on other persons, bewailing his fate,
- the superior man
 - seeks the error within himself, and through this introspection
- the external obstacle becomes for him an occasion for
 - inner enrichment and
 - education.

THE LINES

Nine in the third place means:

Going leads to obstructions

Hence he comes back.

While the preceding line shows

- the official compelled by duty follow the way of danger, this line shows

- the man who must to act

- as father of a family or
- as head of his kin.

- If he were to plunge recklessly into danger,

- it would be a useless act, because those entrusted to his care cannot get along by themselves.

But

- if he withdraws and turns back to his own,

- they welcome him with great joy.

Six in the fourth place means:

Going leads to obstructions,

Coming leads to union.

This too describes a situation that cannot be managed single-handed.

In such a case

the direct way is not the shortest.

If a person were to forge ahead

- on his own strength and
- without the necessary preparations,

he

- would not find the support he needs and
- would realize too late that he has been mistaken in his calculations, inasmuch as the conditions on which he hoped he could rely would prove to be inadequate.

In this case it is better, therefore,

- to hold back for the time being and
- to gather together trustworthy companions who can be counted upon for help in overcoming the obstructions.

HEXAGRAM 45 - Ts'ui - Gathering Together (Massing)

Below K'UN THE RECEPTIVE, EARTH

This hexagram is related in form and meaning to Pi, HOLDING TOGETHER (8).

- In the latter, water is over the earth;
- here a lake is over the earth.

But since the lake is a place where water collects, the idea of gathering together is even more strongly expressed here than in the other hexagram.

The same idea also arises from the fact that

- in the present case it is two strong lines (the fourth and the fifth) that
 - bring about the gathering together,whereas
- in the former case one strong line (the fifth)
 - stands in the midst of weak lines.

THE JUDGMENT

GATHERING TOGETHER.

Success.

The king approaches his temple.

It furthers one to see the great man.

This brings success.

Perseverance furthers.

To bring great offerings creates good fortune.

It furthers one to undertake something,

The gathering together of people in large communities is

- either a natural occurrence, as in the case of the family,
- or an artificial one, as in the case of the state.

The family gathers about the father as its head.

The perpetuation of this gathering in groups is achieved through the sacrifice to the ancestors, at which the whole clan is gathered together.

Through the collective piety of the living members of the family,

- the ancestors become so integrated in the spiritual life of the family that
- it cannot be dispersed or dissolved.

1. Where men are to be gathered together, religious forces are needed.

2. But there must also be a human leader to serve as the center of the group.
In order to be able to bring others together,

this leader must first of all be collected within himself.

Only collective moral force can unite the world.

- Such great times of unification will leave great achievements behind them. This is the significance of the great offerings that are made.
- In the secular sphere likewise there is need of great deeds in the time of GATHERING TOGETHER.

THE IMAGE

Over the earth, the lake: The image Of GATHERING TOGETHER.
Thus the superior man renews his weapons In order to meet the unforeseen.

If the water in the lake gathers until it rises above the earth,

- there is danger of a break-through.
Precautions must be taken to prevent this.

Similarly

- where men gather together in great numbers, strife is likely to arise;
- where possessions are collected, robbery is likely to occur.

Thus in the time of GATHERING TOGETHER

we must arm promptly to ward off the unexpected.

Human woes usually come as a result of unexpected events against which we are not forearmed.

If we are prepared, they can be prevented.
