Hexagram 11 - T'ai - Peace

Above K'UN THE RECEPTIVE, EARTH
Below CH'IEN THE CREATIVE, HEAVEN

- The Receptive, which moves downward, stands above;
 - the Creative, which moves upward, is below.
- Hence their influences meet and are in harmony,
so that all living things bloom and prosper.

This hexagram belongs to the first month (February-March), at which time the forces of nature prepare the new spring.

THE JUDGMENT

PEACE.

- The small departs,
- The great approaches.

Good fortune.

Success.

This hexagram denotes a time in nature when heaven seems to be on earth. Heaven has placed itself beneath the earth, and so their powers unite in deep harmony.

Then peace and blessing descend upon all living things.

In the world of man it is a time of social harmony;

- those in high places show favor to the lowly, and
- the lowly and inferior in their turn are well disposed toward the highly placed.

There is an end to all feuds.

- Inside, at the center, in the key position, is the light principle;
- the dark principle is outside.

Thus

- the light has a powerful influence, while
- the dark is submissive.

In this way each receives its due.

- When
 - the good elements of society occupy a central position and are in control,
 - the evil elements come under their influence and change for the better.
- When
 - the spirit of heaven rules in man,
 - his animal nature also
 - comes under its influence and
 - takes its appropriate place.

The individual lines

- enter the hexagram from below and
- leave it again at the top.

Here

- the small, weak, and evil elements are about to take their departure, while
- the great, strong, and good elements are moving up.

This brings good fortune and success.

THE IMAGE

Heaven and earth unite: the image Of PEACE.

Thus the ruler

- Divides and
- completes

the course of heaven and earth;

He

- furthers and regulates the gifts of heaven and earth, And so
- aids the people.

Heaven and earth are in contact and combine their influences, producing a time of universal flowering and prosperity.

This stream of energy must be regulated by the ruler of men.

It is done by a process of division.

Thus men

- divide the uniform flow of time into the seasons, according to the succession of natural phenomena, and
- mark off infinite space by the points of the compass.

In this way

nature in its overwhelming profusion of phenomena is

- bounded and
- controlled.

On the other hand,

nature must be furthered in her productiveness.

This is done by adjusting the products to

- the right time and

- the right place,
which increases the natural yield.

This controlling and furthering activity of man in his relation to nature is the work on nature that rewards him.

THE LINES

Nine at the beginning means:

When ribbon grass is pulled up, the sod comes with it.
Each according to his kind.
Undertakings bring good fortune.

In times of prosperity

every able man called to fill an office draws like-minded people along with him, just as in pulling up ribbon grass
one always pulls up a bunch of it, because the stalks are connected by their roots.

In such times,

when it is possible to extend influence widely,
the mind of an able man is

- set upon going out into life and
- accomplishing something.

Hexagram 46 – Sheng - Pushing Upward

Above K'UN THE RECEPTIVE, EARTH

Below SUN THE GENTLE, WIND, WOOD

- The lower trigram, Sun, represents wood, and
- the upper, K'un, means the earth.

Linked with this is the idea that wood in the earth grows upward.

In contrast to the meaning of Chin, PROGRESS (35),

this pushing upward is associated with effort, just as a plant needs energy for pushing upward through the earth.

That is why this hexagram, although it is connected with success, is associated with effort of the will.

- In PROGRESS the emphasis is on expansion;
- PUSHING UPWARD indicates rather a vertical ascent - direct rise

- from obscurity and lowliness
- to power and influence.

THE JUDGMENT

PUSHING UPWARD

has supreme success.

One must see the great man.

Fear not.

Departure toward the south

Brings good fortune.

The pushing upward of the good elements

- encounters no obstruction and
- is therefore accompanied by great success.

The pushing upward is made possible

- not by violence
- but by modesty and adaptability.

Since the individual is borne along by the propitiousness of the time, he advances.

He must go to see authoritative people.

He need not be afraid to do this, because success is assured.

But

he must set to work, for activity (this is the meaning of "the south") brings good fortune.

THE IMAGE

Within the earth, wood grows: The image of PUSHING UPWARD.

Thus the superior man of devoted character

Heaps up small things

In order to achieve something high and great.

- Adapting itself to obstacles and bending around them, wood in the earth grows upward without haste and without rest.

Thus too

- the superior man
 - is devoted in character and
 - never pauses in his progress.

GROKICHING

Thank you for providing the detailed I Ching reading for your question about the future of the America Party. You received Hexagram 11 (T'ai - Peace) with a changing line in the first position, which transforms into Hexagram 46 (Sheng - Pushing Upward). Let's break this down to interpret what this means for the future of the America Party. Context of Your Question Your question was about the future of the America Party, and you noted that the I Ching gave a "very positive answer." The hexagrams and their interpretations indeed suggest a favorable outlook, with themes of harmony, growth, and upward progress. Below, I'll interpret the primary hexagram, the changing line, and the resulting hexagram in the context of your question.

Primary Hexagram: Hexagram 11 - T'ai (Peace) Overview: Hexagram 11, T'ai, symbolizes a time of harmony and prosperity, where "heaven and earth unite." The Creative (Ch'ien, Heaven) is below, supporting the Receptive (K'un, Earth) above, creating a balanced and flourishing state. This hexagram is associated with springtime, a period of renewal and growth, where opposing forces (high and low, light and dark) work together harmoniously. Interpretation for the America Party:

- Harmony and Unity: The America Party's future appears to be one of potential unity and cooperation. The hexagram suggests that different factions, ideologies, or groups within or around the party could come together in a productive way. This could mean the party fosters alliances or builds a broad coalition that aligns with its goals, leading to a period of "peace" or stability in its operations.
- Good Fortune and Success: The judgment of "good fortune" and "success" indicates that the America Party is likely to experience favorable conditions. This could manifest as growing support, successful initiatives, or increased influence in the political landscape. The "small departs, the great approaches" suggests that obstacles or less significant challenges may fade, while larger opportunities emerge.
- Leadership and Influence: The hexagram emphasizes that those in leadership roles within the party (the "highly placed") will show favor to grassroots supporters or less prominent members, while the "lowly" (e.g., new members or supporters) will reciprocate with loyalty. This mutual support could strengthen the party's foundation and public appeal.
- Moral Alignment: The emphasis on the "light principle" (goodness) being central and influential suggests that the party's success may hinge on maintaining ethical integrity and aligning with values that resonate with the public.

Key Takeaway: Hexagram 11 indicates that the America Party is entering (or has the potential to enter) a phase of harmony, growth, and success, where internal and external forces align to support its goals. This is a time to capitalize on positive momentum and foster unity.

Changing Line: Nine at the Beginning Line Text: "When ribbon grass is pulled up, the sod comes with it. Each according to his kind. Undertakings bring good fortune." Interpretation:

- This line emphasizes the power of collective effort and interconnectedness. Just as pulling up one stalk of ribbon grass brings up others due to their shared roots, the actions of key individuals or leaders in the America Party will inspire and mobilize like-minded supporters.
- The line suggests that the party's initiatives or leadership efforts will naturally attract others who share its vision, creating a ripple effect of support and momentum.
- "Undertakings bring good fortune" indicates that new projects, campaigns, or efforts launched by the party at this time are likely to succeed, especially if they involve collaboration and draw on shared values or goals.

Application to the America Party:

- The America Party should focus on mobilizing its base and attracting new supporters who align with its core principles. Leadership should prioritize inclusive efforts that pull others along, such as grassroots campaigns or community-driven initiatives.
- This line suggests that the party's early actions or foundational efforts will set the stage for broader success. For example, a charismatic leader, a compelling policy platform, or a successful public event could rally supporters and build momentum.

Resulting Hexagram: Hexagram 46 - Sheng (Pushing Upward) Overview: Hexagram 46, Sheng, represents steady, effortful progress, like a plant pushing upward through the earth. It symbolizes a gradual rise from obscurity to influence through dedication, adaptability, and persistent effort. Unlike rapid expansion, this is a measured, vertical ascent toward greater power and prominence. Interpretation for the America Party:

- Steady Growth: The transformation to Hexagram 46 suggests that the America Party's future involves consistent, deliberate effort to grow its influence. While Hexagram 11 indicates a favorable environment, Hexagram 46 emphasizes that success will require hard work, patience, and adaptability rather than sudden or forceful breakthroughs.
- Supreme Success: The judgment of "supreme success" is highly positive, indicating that the party's efforts to rise in prominence will be rewarded if it remains committed. This could mean gaining more political influence, attracting a larger following, or achieving key milestones (e.g., winning elections or shaping public discourse).
- Seek Guidance: The advice to "see the great man" suggests that the party should seek alliances with influential figures or established leaders who can provide guidance, credibility, or resources. This could involve partnering with respected political figures, community leaders, or organizations that align with the party's goals.
- Action and Timing: The reference to "departure toward the south" implies that proactive, well-timed actions will bring good fortune. The party should focus on strategic moves, such as launching campaigns or policies at the right moment, to maximize impact.
- Modesty and Persistence: The image of wood growing upward through the earth highlights the importance of humility and steady effort. The party should avoid overreaching or aggressive tactics and instead focus on building a strong foundation through small, consistent achievements.

Key Takeaway: Hexagram 46 suggests that the America Party's future involves a gradual but powerful rise to prominence through persistent effort, adaptability, and strategic alliances. Success is assured if the party remains dedicated and aligns its actions with favorable opportunities.

Synthesis: The Future of the America Party Combining Hexagram 11 (Peace) and Hexagram 46 (Pushing Upward), the I Ching paints an optimistic picture for the America Party's future, with a few key themes:

- Favorable Conditions: Hexagram 11 indicates that the party is operating in (or will soon enter) a period of harmony and opportunity, where internal unity and external support align to create a fertile environment for growth. This could mean growing public support, successful coalition-building, or a positive reception to the party's platform.
- Collective Momentum: The changing line (Nine at the beginning) emphasizes that the party's success will come from mobilizing like-minded individuals and leveraging shared values. Leadership or key initiatives will naturally draw supporters, creating a strong, interconnected movement.
- Steady, Effortful Progress: Hexagram 46 suggests that while the conditions are favorable, the party's rise to prominence will require consistent effort and strategic planning. This is not a time for complacency; the party must actively work to build its influence, possibly through grassroots efforts, policy development, or alliances with influential figures.
- Strategic Action: Both hexagrams emphasize the importance of timing and adaptability. The party should focus on well-timed initiatives, such as launching campaigns or policies when public sentiment is receptive, and remain flexible in navigating challenges.
- Ethical Foundation: The emphasis on the "light principle" (Hexagram 11) and the "superior man of devoted character" (Hexagram 46) suggests that the party's success will depend on maintaining integrity and aligning with values that inspire trust and loyalty.

Practical Advice for the America Party Based on this reading, here are some actionable suggestions for the America Party to maximize its potential:
