HEXAGRAM 60 – Chieh - Limitation

Below TUI THE JOYOUS, LAKE

- A lake occupies a limited space.
When more water comes into it,
 - it overflows.
Therefore
- limits must be set for the water.
- The image shows
- water below and
 - water above,
 - with the firmament between them as a limit.

The Chinese word for limitation really denotes the joints that divide a bamboo stalk.

- In relation to ordinary life
 - it means the thrift that sets fixed limits upon expenditures.
- In relation to the moral sphere
 - it means the fixed limits that the superior man sets upon his actions - the limits of loyalty and disinterestedness.

THE JUDGMENT

LIMITATION.

Success.

Galling limitation must not be persevered in.

- Limitations are troublesome, but
- they are effective.

If

- we live economically in normal times,
- we are prepared for times of want.

To be sparing saves us from humiliation.

Limitations are also indispensable in the regulation of world conditions.

In nature there are fixed limits for

- summer and winter,
- day and night, and

these limits give the year its meaning.

In the same way,

economy,

by setting fixed limits upon expenditures, acts to

- preserve property and
- prevent injury to the people.

But in limitation

we must observe due measure.

- If a man should seek to impose galling limitations upon his own nature,
 - it would be injurious.

And

- if he should go too far in imposing limitations on others,
 - they would rebel.

Therefore

it is necessary to set limits even upon limitations

THE IMAGE

Water over lake: the image of LIMITATION.

Thus

the superior man

- Creates number and measure, And
- examines the nature of virtue and correct conduct.

- A lake is something limited.
- Water is inexhaustible.

A lake

- can contain only a definite amount of the infinite quantity of water;
- this is its peculiarity.

In human life too

the individual achieves significance through

- discrimination and
- the setting of limits.

Therefore

what concerns us here is the problem of clearly defining these discriminations,

which are, so to speak,

- the backbone of morality.

- Unlimited possibilities are not suited to man;
- if
- they existed,
- his life would only dissolve in the boundless.

To become strong,

a man's life needs the limitations

- ordained by duty and
- voluntarily accepted.

The individual attains significance as a free spirit only

- by surrounding himself with these limitations and
- by determining for himself what his duty is.

THE LINES

Nine at the beginning means:

Not going out of the door and the courtyard

Is without blame.

Often a man who

- would like to undertake something
- finds himself confronted by insurmountable limitations.

Then he must know where to stop.

If

he

- rightly understands this and
- does not go beyond the limits set for him,

he

- accumulates an energy that enables him,
when the proper time comes,
- to act with great force.

Discretion is of prime importance in preparing the way for momentous things.

Concerning this, Confucius says:

- Where disorder develops,
 - words are the first steps.
- If the prince is not discreet,
 - he loses his servant.
- If the servant is not discreet,
 - he loses his life.
- If germinating things are not handled with discretion,
 - the perfecting of them is impeded.

Therefore

- the superior man
 - is careful to maintain silence and
 - does not go forth.

Nine in the second place means:

Not going out of the gate and the courtyard
Brings misfortune.

When

- the time for action has come,
- the moment must be quickly seized.

Just as

- water first collects in a lake without flowing out,
 - yet is certain to find an outlet when the lake is full,
- so it is in the life of man.

- It is a good thing to hesitate

so long as

- the time for action has not come, but no longer.

Once

the obstacles to action have been removed,
anxious hesitation

- is a mistake that is bound to bring disaster,
- because one misses one's opportunity.

Six in the third place means:

He who knows no limitation
Will have cause to lament.
No blame.

If

- an individual is bent only on pleasures and enjoyment,
- it is easy for him to lose his sense of the limits that are necessary.

If

- he gives himself over to extravagance,
- he will have to suffer the consequences,
with accompanying regret.

He must not seek to lay the blame on others.

Only when

- we realize that our mistakes are of our own making
- will such disagreeable experiences free us of errors.

HEXAGRAM 39 – Chien - Obstruction

Below KEN KEEPING STILL, MOUNTAIN

The hexagram pictures

- a dangerous abyss lying before us and
- a steep, inaccessible mountain rising behind us.

We are surrounded by obstacles;

at the same time, since the mountain has the attribute of keeping still,

there is implicit a hint as to how we can extricate ourselves.

The hexagram represents obstructions that appear in the course of time but that can and should be overcome.

Therefore

all the instruction given is directed to overcoming them.

THE JUDGMENT

OBSTRUCCION.

- The southwest furthers.
- The northeast does not further.
- It furthers one to see the great man.

Perseverance brings good fortune.

The southwest is the region of retreat,
the northeast that of advance.

Here

an individual is confronted by obstacles that cannot be overcome directly.

In such a situation

it is wise

- to pause in view of the danger and
- to retreat.

However,

this is merely a preparation for overcoming the obstructions.

One must

- join forces with friends of like mind and
- put himself under the leadership of a man equal to the situation:

then

one will succeed in removing the obstacles.

This requires the will to persevere

just when one apparently must do something that leads away from his goal.

This unswerving inner purpose brings good fortune in the end.

An obstruction that lasts only for a time is useful for self-development.

This is the value of adversity.

THE IMAGE

Water on the mountain:

The image of OBSTRUCTION.

Thus the superior man

- turns his attention to himself And
- molds his character.

Difficulties and obstructions throw a man back upon himself.

While

- the inferior man
 - seeks to put the blame on other persons, bewailing his fate,
- the superior man
 - seeks the error within himself, and through this introspection
- the external obstacle becomes for him an occasion for
 - inner enrichment and
 - education.
